MEMO ENDORSED

Re: *US v. Anthony Cheedie, et al
Dkt. # 19 cr 833
Chad Allen Motion to Join Motion

Dear Judge Stein:

On October 13, 2020 co-defendant Cameron Brewster filed his pre-trial omnibus motions for a Bill of Particulars, suppression of certain evidence, obtain discovery and obtain other related relief. I have reviewed the motion and corresponding caselaw. I have also spoken with Mr. Brewster's attorney, Ryan Poscablo, regarding their submissions.

Based upon the foregoing, I move to have Chad Allen join the motions filed by Cameron Brewster. Specifically, Mr. Allen joins the following motions:

1. Bill of Particulars pursuant to FRCP 7(f);
2. Disclosure of Brady, Giglio, and Jencks Act material;
3. Disclosure of Grand Jury Testimony pursuant to FRCP 6(3)(E)(ii);
4. Permission to File Additional and Supplemental Motion and/or to Join Co-defendant's motions.

As of this submission, the defense has reviewed less than 50% of the discovery already provided. The Government's rolling production of the voluminous discovery has the potential to influence future legal issues that may be subject to a motion. We will continue our due diligence and raise any additional issues in a timely fashion. Thank you for your thoughtful consideration.

Sincerely,

FOY & SELOWITZ LLC
